Oakland, CA – July 26, 2007– BizXchange, a business barter exchange with offices in the San Francisco Bay Area, Seattle, Washington and Dubai, UAE announced today that it has been named to the East Bay Business Times list of “50 fastest-growing privately owned companies” in the East Bay. The East Bay Business Times gives out its Fastest Growing Private Companies (FAST 50) award annually to 50 companies. This year, the list of 50 companies is made up of two separate rankings: one based on the percentage of revenue growth and the other based on the total revenue growth in dollars.

The Fast 50 winners were honored at a reception on Thursday, July 26, at Golden Gate Fields horse racing track, 1100 Eastshore Highway in Berkeley.

BizX views their Fast 50 award as evidence of their commitment to dramatically grow their client base throughout the Bay Area business community. “Bay Area companies love the benefits of doing business on trade,” says Chris Haddawy, Co-Founder and Chief Operations Officer at BizXchange. “We have been successful because business barter has helped our members improve and grow their companies.
